

In addition to minor language or terminology clarifications and corrections, the following substantive changes were made in the draft Historic Preservation Ordinance Update:

Original Section #	New Section #	Section Name	Revisions
14.01.020	14.01.020	Definitions	Definitions removed due to redundancy elsewhere in City code, change in procedure, or lack of relevance to the HPO: accessory structure, community design guidelines, contributing list resource or property, cultural resource, historic property, historic preservation report, massing, master list resource, modern contributing resource, noncontributing resource, preservation, primary structure, reconstruction, rehabilitation, restoration, scale, sensitive site, siting, statement of historic significance, survey, threatened resource Definitions revised for accuracy and clarity: adverse effects, alteration, archaeological site, character-defining features, demolition, deterioration, historic district / historical preservation district, historic resource, historic status, inappropriate alteration, integrity (architectural or historical), inventory of historic resources, listed resource, minor alteration, National Register, neglect, qualified professional, relocation, site Definitions added due to changes in subsequent HPO sections: contributing resource (district), department, eligible resource, historic resource evaluation, landmark, local register resource, Mills Act program, project analysis report, non-contributor, reversible, traditional cultural property
14.01.030	14.01.030	Cultural Heritage Committee	Section revised to combine previous sections B and C and remove redundancies.
14.01.040	14.01.040	Community Development Director Role	Section revised to align with changes to 14.01.030.
14.01.050	14.01.050	Historic Resource Designation	Revised to include "landmarks" (replaces "master list resources") and "local register properties" (replaces "contributing list resources") to better communicate the status of highest-level resources and rectify the confusing situation in which "contributing" resources may exist independent of historic districts.

Original Section #	New Section #	Section Name	Revisions
14.01.055	None	Historic gardens, site features, signs, and other cultural resources	Section removed and contents incorporated into definition and designation sections.
14.01.070	14.01.055	Evaluation Criteria for historic resource designation	Revised the criteria to align with those used for the National Register and California Register. Removed “integrity” as a criterion for significance, and clarified that it is required for eligibility under any criterion. Provided additional requirements for historic districts. Extensive guidance and examples removed from the HPO should be incorporated in and update to the HPPG.
14.01.060	14.01.060	Designation procedures for Landmarks and Local Register Resources	Changed section title and wording to reflect changed category names, added requirement for historic resource evaluation, revised roles and responsibilities for initiating, reviewing, and acting.
14.01.080	14.01.070	Historic district designation—Purpose and application.	Revised “Where Applied” to align with current approaches to historic districts, including requirements for significance under one or more criteria.
14.01.090	14.01.080	Process for establishing or amending Historic Districts	Revised report requirements to align with current best practices in preservation. Removed requirements for preservation goals/concerns, design guidelines. Added property owner notification requirement.
14.01.100	14.01.090	Demolition of listed or eligible historic resources	Added historic resource evaluation requirement at discretion of Director.
14.01.110	14.01.100	Relocation of listed or eligible historic resources	Added evaluation and project analysis report requirements at discretion of Director. Revised language regarding appropriateness of receiving site.
14.01.130	None	Historic and cultural resource preservation fund established	Removed section, as fund has not been established.